Core Values

ACMO is committed to the recognition, promotion and support of Professional Condominium Managers across Ontario, through education, member services, public awareness and a strict adherence to the highest ethical standards.

CM Condominium Manager, the official publication of the Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario (ACMO), is published quarterly as a medium of communication between the Association and its members and as a forum for fair comment and discussion on all matters of general interest to the condominium community at large. Readers are invited to comment and express opinions on relevant topics. Views and opinions expressed do not necessarily reflect the policies of the Association and are strictly those of the writers. Publication of advertisements, contributed articles and letters does not imply endorsement of the opinions expressed therein, and ACMO, CM Condominium Manager, its publishers and staff do not accept any responsibility for them. All material submitted and published remains the property of the publishers and/or the Association of Condominium Managers of Ontario. No reproduction of this publication in whole or in part is permitted without the written authorization of the publishers.

Information and opinions printed in CM Condominium Manager are brief summaries of complex topics provided by the publisher and authors without any liability whatsoever. Readers should obtain expert advice in specific situations.

CM Condominium Manager is a controlled circulation professional trade publication distributed free of charge to members of ACMO.
